Ground yourself in Central Australia's iconic landscapes and rich cultural heritage at Uluru and Alice Springs. Immerse yourself in the stories, songs and art that have flourished throughout this region for over 65,000 years.

 Uluru-Kata Tjuta National Park

Day 1: Uluru

Ilkari Restaurant, Sails in the Desert Hotel

Maruku Arts

Connect with Aboriginal artists as you share stories and gain firsthand insights into Anangu culture during a dot painting workshop at Maruku Arts.

Maruku Arts

Relax under shady eucalyptus trees and enjoy a delicious lunch while local Anangu people, the Aboriginal Traditional Owners of this land, perform a cultural ceremony welcoming you to their country.

Helicopter flight over Uluru

Take flight aboard a scenic helicopter ride to fully appreciate this expansive desert landscape. Land on a secluded sand dune for a spectacular sunset experience.

Sounds of Silence

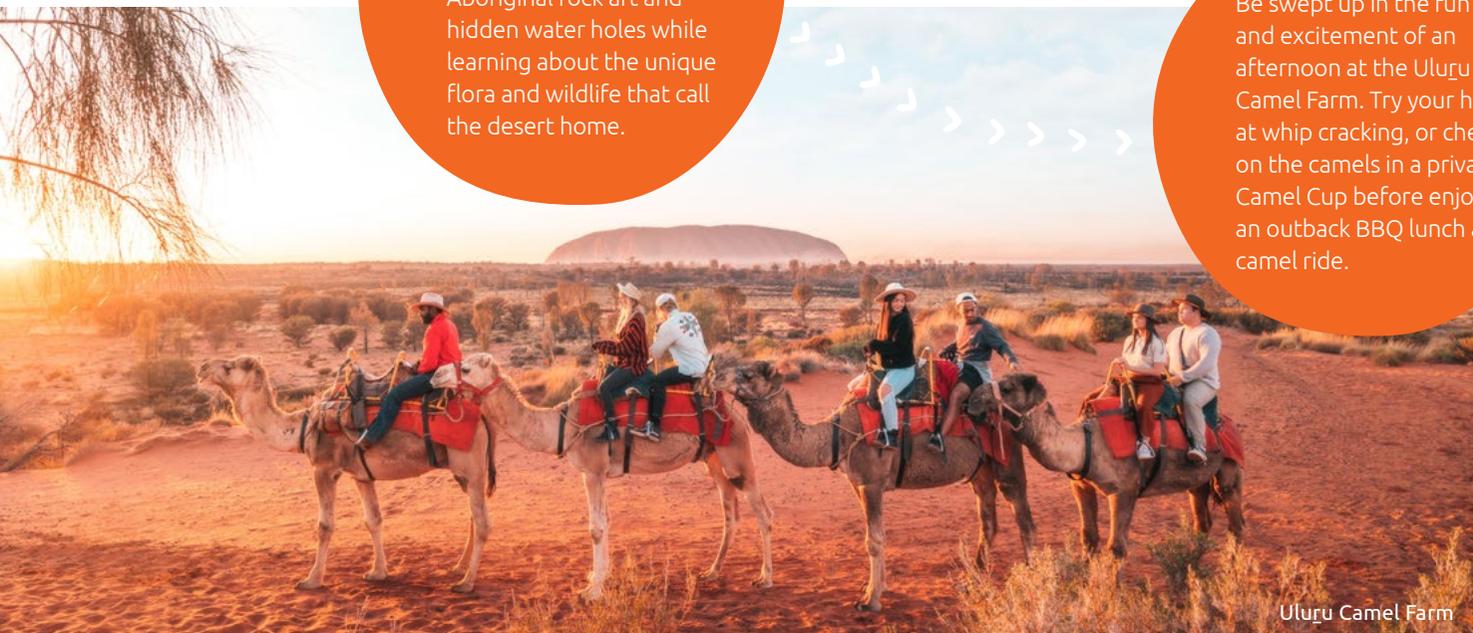

Dine under a canopy of stars, with breathtaking views of Uluru and the domes of Kata Tjuta.

Day 2: Uluru

Early dawn light enhances the immensity of Uluru on the landscape. Discover ancient Aboriginal rock art and hidden water holes while learning about the unique flora and wildlife that call the desert home.

Uluru

Be swept up in the fun and excitement of an afternoon at the Uluru Camel Farm. Try your hand at whip cracking, or cheer on the camels in a private Camel Cup before enjoying an outback BBQ lunch and camel ride.

Uluru Camel Farm

Reflect on your day as you enjoy sunset drinks and dinner under a canopy of stars. Immerse yourself in the spectacular Field of Light art installation which blankets the desert night in colour from the solar spheres.

Field of Light

Day 3: Uluru and Alice Springs

Scenic flight over the MacDonnell Ranges

Gain a bird's-eye view of the Red Centre's dramatic landscapes whilst enjoying a scenic flight over Kings Canyon and the West MacDonnell ranges before landing in Alice Springs.

Simpsons Gap

Simpsons Gap

Be in awe of the towering cliffs and sun-drenched rock faces of the West MacDonnell Ranges whilst enjoying a bush-tucker inspired picnic lunch at Simpsons Gap.

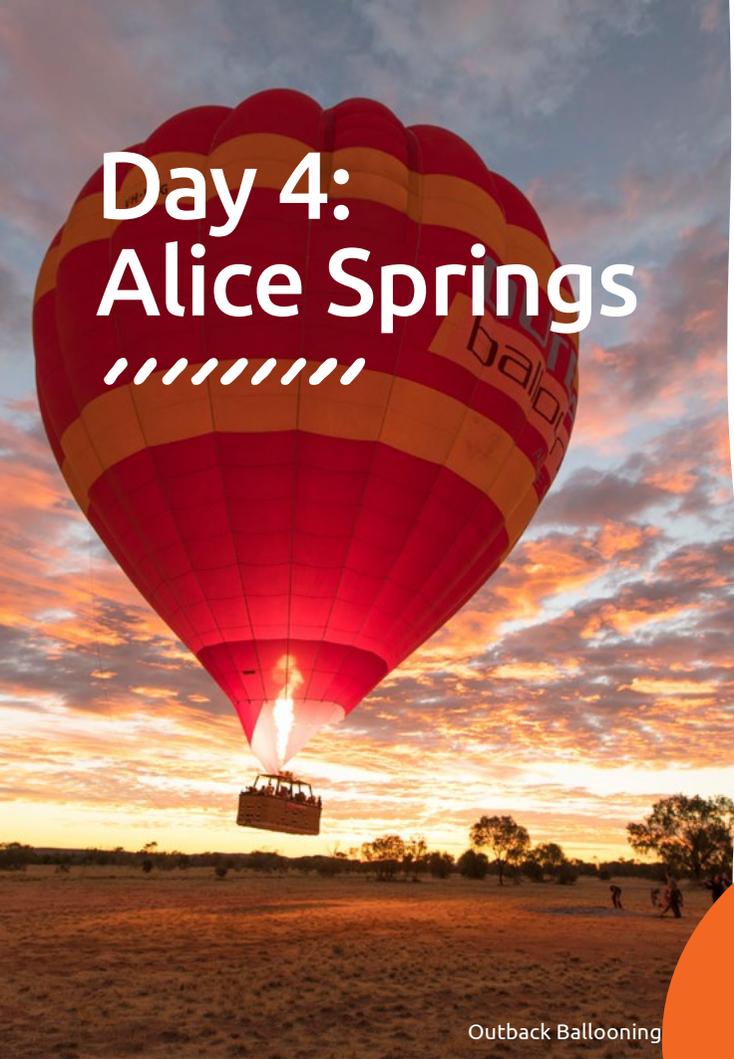

Step back in time at the Alice Springs Telegraph Station Historical Reserve. Immerse yourself in the stories of Alice Springs' first European settlement and enjoy a rustic market-style dinner as you relax by the campfire.
